

Paul F. and June D. Scott Endowed Scholarship Fact Sheet Shelby County Community Foundation

Type of scholarships

A college education scholarship is available for tuition at a school of the student's choice. The high school senior from Harlan Community High School must be accepted as a student by the institution of higher education.

Number of scholarships

Ten scholarships of approximately $1,000 each.

Who may apply?

Only Harlan Community High School graduating seniors who are enrolled in a two- or four-year degreed or certified program may apply. The criteria for a Scott Scholar give preference to students with successful high school academic careers, extra-curricular activities, along with a demonstrated community service spirit of volunteerism.

How do I apply?

Complete a Paul F. and June D. Scott Endowed Scholarship application form and submit it, along with a copy of your current transcripts, to your Guidance Counselor. Applications are available from your Guidance Counselor or online at www.swiowafoundations.org.

What is the Deadline?

Annually completed scholarship materials must be submitted to your Guidance Counselor no later than March 31st.

What is the purpose of the Scott Scholarship?

In making scholarship awards, the selection committee will take into consideration the donor's intent to perpetuate and honor the Scott family, long time residents of Shelby County, and to provide financial assistance to worthy students who explain in their application why they need the scholarship and how it will help them achieve their goals.

Who selects the scholarship recipients?

A designated scholarship selection committee selected by the Harlan Community School District and approved by the Shelby County Community Foundation Advisory Board will select the recipients.

How is the scholarship recipient notified?

The High School Guidance Counselor office will notify the recipient of their selection and school traditions of public announcements are observed. A packet of materials for the recipient is provided to the High School Guidance Counselor office. The scholarship is paid to the student's account at the educational institution the student elected.
